The 3rd act the home plate so let's close the gap
SF up the w(h)atts
Move up the snap
Show the bros how we west coast flow and close a slap
Behold the gat, slicked up with gas
Throned into the roman forum for talking smack Exposed for acts, stone cold and backed Sent from home alone no cap

They thought I Would fold the Rizz and go to them
But bold is my own sin Miedo live

[There is a circular brown stain on this page, indicating the bottom of a liquor bottle was rested directly on the paper. Red ink is used for the audio notes in the margins.]
[Intro]
Hey hey hey stop up at that corner
<Car screeches to a halt, two guns cock and doors open.>
“you fucked with the wrong set bitch”
Bang bang bang
Bang bang
Bangbangbangbang [Written jaggedly, overlapping itself, pen pressing hard] <Doors open commotion, close then car drives.>
“gogogo let's get gone”

[Verse 1]
9 shots to drop the op
Two glocks and a drop of vod
One whip stole off of Van Buren
And two hounds looking for villains
Make no mistake when prophet comes salvation is given, embrace.
Is my vision to reflect and redirect the formative hate
That culture has totally erased
Oakland where we live and breath
Ghost Town a home that we all need
Where the ghosts sound 2047 and never slee
[Verse 2]
Pulled up... [The ink trails off the edge of the page here. Left completely unfinished.]
[PAGE 12: THE SF BEATS SESSION]
[Written in blue ballpoint pen on the back of a torn receipt taped into the book. The handwriting is smaller and cleaner, reflecting the producer persona rather than the tactical persona. Titled: INTERRUPTED]
Profit all in, the dog's pull-pit so much that, it got the drool lucid pitbull full Stoopid ready to reap the jewels new fit its foggy and it's pouring rain it's cold and I feel like I miss the states but there's no thing a bit of thizz can remake the new scene and it's still grey but with a bit of bay area flav watch the grey turn to greens and bright sunny days [A heavy line is drawn across the page here. Note in margin: Rax crashed the booth holding the Queen statue. Let him keep the mic.]

WHENEVER THE CLEVERIST HITS (2026)
Artist: Dog-Prophet | Technique: The "Chop Chef" Flow
[Intro: DJ Skit & Street Philosophy]
(Static as dramatic sounding beats play then suddenly it all stops.)
"Nice DJ, bring up the tempo a bit yadawahtimean?"
(Tempo increases)
"Preem. Bet let's get er done yeah."
Big ups to the boys down on the block,
It's not about the stacks racks or cash,
It the thought the walk and the talk
To say it in the easiest possible way
Stop thinking with your cocks,
It's our acts that make us remended not remanded...
Now nuff if this bullshit
DJ Drool let's drop that fire
[Verse 1: Dog-Prophet]
Back at it flow, so dramatic it's savage Pulse below average but the vantage that is shown through my active tracked hits, Ravaged the game so cold it got a tragic reaction and damaged the industry well above the standard And hemorrhaged to the point of candid. Then I vanish with the tomb stone that was sold to hope damaged panicking habits of the mentally fa-mished Rebranded by the industry and planted to push the plans on mas-ses.

Redacted wipe their photos out with a black tip Pack the paper in the trash-it. And subtract it
No that was not a sub track diss but it was a dub that's bliss with blisterin Rizz
A le-le-level up man, y'all should just retire
Pro-fetches all the flows like a vetted dog with a new set of testicles
Trip up at first then just let them go
No matter as long as I get the next to go Methodic with the spectical of trend-setting repu-ta-ble linguistic flexing tones (Recognize Real Results reappropriates reality road)
[Verse 2: The Prophet's Sermon]
Have Hardly a Heathen Heart
How hideously this human history hypes his hate however holy heaven hardly helps hindered both hypocrisy
[Hook]
When the monsters come to play
the fearful run and hide
just when they think they’re safe
the monsters creep inside and prowl.
And as they scream and pray
The monsters Howl
Tomorrows Another day
For their fight
but your light’s out.
[Outro: Baroque/Broke]
Pure Baroque and Slumbered
when the party broke to bash.
Nothing but a tiny bit Locusts on all the Joker Traps Wrote this last stanza of woke hip rap to finish inside of the broke in in class.
